Listen to the text about Abai Kunanbaev from the recorder:

Abai Kunanbaev (1845-1904)

Abai was a great Kazakh poet, musician, and a writer. He was born in Abai settlement near the city of Semey. He was from the rich family. His father Kunanbai was very strict person. But his mother Ulzhan and grandmother Zere were kind, good-natured and warm-hearted. They were good story-tellers. They told little Abai a lot of interesting stories, tales and legends of Kazakh people. At the age of 9 Abai went to a religious school. When he was 13 he began to learn Russian school in Semey. He liked to read books of great Russian poets and writers.... After listening the text people divided into two groups. Pupils of the 1-st and 2-nd groups will translate the text , then they'll put the questions to each other and answer them: — When and where was Abai born? -Who were his parents? -Who acquainted him with tales and legends of Kazakh people? -When did Abai go to school and what did he learn there? -What is Abai famous for?
